FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Christmas is so very close and the concert upon us! There seems to be such a lot to fit into all our lives and I want to thank everyone who is participating and making the concert happen – the ballets (A School Room Fantasy and Midsummer Night's Dream) have come together so well and I am excited to see all our students performing next week. I am also excited to see all the jazz, tap contemporary and character items! Costumes are almost complete as I write, and sets are looking fabulous. Many volunteers put in huge amounts of time to support the students of this school and give them this sort of opportunity and I want to thank them all – costume makers, set builders and painters, scenery crews, those who clean up after everyone and cook sausages so that the dancers have food during combined rehearsals, and of course the parents and family members who ensure their children are at rehearsals and have their costumes ready.

Thanks also to the committee who support the work we do and ensure rosters are up and working, and so many organizational duties taken care of to make this a safe and productive environment for the children of this school.

Staff have also been working very long (mostly unpaid) hours to make sure the concert comes together with the dances fully rehearsed, costumes and accessories all completed and the hundreds of little things like labelling costumes, searching for bits and pieces to finish off costumes, paperwork, music editing – the list is endless and mostly goes unnoticed, so thank you to all of you for your support and help through this very busy term. A special thanks to Rhiann and Jessi who have given up countless hours to assist me in costume production.

And then there are the dancers who are coming up with delightful performances for you and our larger audience to enjoy. I hope that you will sit back and enjoy the show and cheer on each and every performer as they so richly deserve. And on that note please remain and watch the entire show – so many junior parents leave- leaving many empty seats when the senior ballet begins – so sad for them as they have worked so hard – and one day it will be YOUR child feeling let down because the junior families didn't want to watch them, even though their families and friends have watched and supported your little ones!

I am excited to be travelling to the UK after the concert to spend Christmas with my daughter Laura and her fiancé Craig and other family members – I will meet my grand-niece Victoria for the first time J. In the meantime we are busy re-locating to our wonderful temporary premises and all the work that involves – please offer you help wherever possible!

Next year will be an adventure for all of us in a new location while these premises are extended and completely renovated – hopefully by mid term 2 we will be back here in a wonderful new building – hope you will all be as excited as I am. Just a note that the new studios are very exposed (opposite Eastland and close to the bypass) and we need all our families to be extra vigilant when dropping off and picking up their children. It will also be necessary for us to know which seniors will be walking down from school so that we can ensure their whereabouts and safety. I have always ensured I am at the studio when school comes out so that seniors can walk down and be in a safe environment but this is further to walk and so we need your support to ensure they are all safe.

It was also so exciting, in 2016, to have student Flynn Stelfox accepted into the Australian Ballet School in 2017 and Melinda Ferenczi into the Australian Conservatoire of ballet. Natalie Smoel also leaves us to join Kelly Ayckers performing arts course (alongside fellow student Madeleine Magetti). We have also had a number of students do fantastically well in exams and competitions and to enhance their training through extension programmes. I congratulate all those who participated in exams and comps this year.

Now I will take the opportunity to wish you all a joyous festive season and the very best for 2017.

Regards

Rosemary Frost

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The end of another year is here and once again our community is celebrating by enjoying the performances of the Annual Production – definitely the highlight of the year.

This year we are looking forward to A Midsummer Night's Dream as our feature ballet and our junior members will be performing their own junior ballet of A School Room Fantasy. Supported, as always, by the Jazz, Tap, Contemporary and Character items, I'm sure everyone watching will be thoroughly entertained by our talented students.

Our end of year production is always the result of many hours of hard work and this year has been no exception. This year we are very fortunate and we have been able to use a number of costumes from our stock, some new costumes were needed and our Artistic Director, Rosemary Frost, has worked for many extra hours to sew costumes as well as bring everything together. On behalf of the school community I must offer congratulations for this wonderful production and thank her for all her work and dedication, not just during the concert period, but throughout the year as well.

I'd also like to thank all our other teachers for their efforts and support as well. We are fortunate to have such a group of dedicated and professional teachers sharing their love and knowledge of dance with the students.

I must also thank everyone for becoming involved to make this a real community effort. Special thanks are due to all those who were able to give even more time to help not only with costumes and scenery but also with the numerous other tasks that need doing at this time of the year.

I would also like to thank the Maroondah City Council for their continuing support and assistance throughout the year, and especially to Mary Anne Lowe who has been a tremendous support in the planning and execution of the redevelopment of our wonderful ballet studios. A big thank you to all the families that have helped with the beginning of our move to our new home on Warrandyte Road. Please remember that as of Enrolment Day 4 February 2017 we will be in our new home.

Also deserving a big thank you is the committee. They have all been hard at work, usually in the background, to help maintain the smooth functioning of the school, especially in the lead up to the concert.

In conclusion, I'd like to wish everyone a safe and enjoyable holiday break and we look forward to seeing you all in the New Year.

Cathy Davidson – President

We will be having clean up days Monday 12th and Tuesday 13th December at both the RBG studios and the Temporary Studios from 10am until 5pm – if you can spare some time to come down and help, please do.

There will probably still be plenty still to do after these two days and we'll communicate details as they are arranged.
